Shipping costs

Certain goods and/or services may be shipped, supplied and delivered with the involvement of other nominated or preferred third party shipping/freight/logistics provider(s), and may be subject to the terms, conditions and processes of the relevant third party, instead of or additionally to those referred to in this policy (for example, owing to established or preferred SAP shipping processes and practices used by you or by a third party).

Goods and services sent using your preferred shipping method or account (or otherwise being facilitated by or involving any third party shipping organisation), shall be separate and distinct from any agreement between you and Britetech and outside of our control, and shall be governed according to the terms of the agreement(s) between you and the relevant party(ies).

We recommend that you refer to the relevant third party website or contact the third party organisation directly for more information in respect of these shipping processes and associated costs, if applicable.

GST

Unless otherwise expressly stated, all amounts payable through your use of this site are expressed to be exclusive of GST and may be increased on account of GST, if GST applies to the supply of the goods or services requested in your order. For these purposes, the term "GST" has the meaning given to it in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth). Payment of the additional amount of GST will be made at the same time and in the same manner as payment for the goods and services is required to be made.

PayPal secure payment gateway

Britetech uses the third-party PayPal payment gateway provided by PayPal Australia Pty Limited (ABN 93 111 195 389) for its secure online payment transactions. Payments made through PayPal are subject to PayPal's own terms and conditions and privacy policy, links to which are provided from the PayPal checkout pages. For more information about PayPal, see the PayPal website (<http://www.paypal.com.au>).

Unless you expressly consent otherwise, we do not see or have access to any personal information that you may provide to PayPal, other than information that is required in order to process your order and deliver your purchased items to you (eg, your name, email address and billing/postal address).

Credit and debit card payments

It is not necessary to have a PayPal account in order to make a purchase on this site. PayPal accepts all major credit and debit cards. Please note that we may be unable to accept credit cards issued by banks outside of Australia in some cases. Additional transaction fees may apply if paying by credit card, in which case the additional charges will be specified at checkout.

Payment by EFT

If you elect to pay for an order by direct deposit using EFT, after your order has been submitted, we will send you an email containing instructions for making the payment, or otherwise provide such information to you, including our bank account details and the reference number for your order. Please quote the reference number for the EFT transaction in order to avoid delays in processing your order.

Refunds and other remedies

Except as expressly provided otherwise in these Website Terms of Use and required under the Australian Consumer Law, all amounts paid through this site are non-refundable. Further information on the steps that Britetech will take to remedy any breach of any non-excludable condition or warranty/guarantee is provided under the heading "Remedies limited" in these Website Terms of Use below.

Security

While PayPal and our website hosting providers employ secure technology for transactions with our customers, we will not be responsible for any damages, including consequential losses (whether direct or indirect), that may be suffered by a customer whose credit or debit card or bank account information is used in a fraudulent or unauthorised manner by any person other than Britetech.

Britetech may request further information from you, such as a copy of your credit card and/or other identification documentation, as part of our internal validation procedures. These procedures help protect bank and credit card account holders from online fraud. Until your order has passed our internal fraud prevention checks, your order will remain on pending status. If further information is requested and you do not provide the requested information within such time as Britetech considers appropriate at its discretion, your order will be cancelled and, if your payment has been received, it will be refunded back to you.
